Commercial Lines Dominate Among Banks in Insurance

Mamaroneck, NY—November 13, 2006: Commercial property and casualty is the dominant insurance line among the nation's leading banks in insurance, according to Who's Who in Bank Insurance \(2006 Edition\), distributed this week by the Bank Insurance & Securities Association. The 150-page annual study looks at the top 100 banks and thrifts in insurance brokerage.

Commercial lines dominated at 73 percent of bank insurance programs surveyed, down from 79 percent in the previous year. Indeed, eight of the top 10-ranked institutions in the study—Wells Fargo, BB&T, Wachovia, Bank of America, Greater Bay Bancorp, Regions Financial, UnionBanCal Corp., and Commerce Bancorp—achieved their position largely through the acquisition of commercial P&C agencies.

Published by the Bank Insurance Market Research Group (Mamaroneck, NY), the study aims to tell “The story behind the numbers of the top 100 banks in insurance.” Bank inclusion in the 2006 edition required at least $3.8 million in annual insurance brokerage revenues. For the 2005 edition, $3.4 million was required.

Among the study's findings: Pennsylvania has become a hotbed of bank insurance agency activity. (See table below.) More than one quarter (7) of the 27 bank insurance programs rated ‘Up-and-Comers’ in the 2006 edition were located in the Keystone State. National Penn Bancshares (Boyertown, PA), for example, had $7.09 million in insurance brokerage revenues in 2005, a dramatic 84 percent increase from 2004. It improved its ‘Who’s Who’ ranking from 88th to 67th. National Penn acquired three insurance agencies between July 2004 and January 2005.

“There appears to be an arms race of sorts in Pennsylvania when it comes to the acquiring insurance agencies,” observes Andrew Singer, author of the study. “Two Pennsylvania institutions on the top 100 list, KNBT Bancorp Inc. (Bethlehem, PA) and Beneficial Savings Bank (Philadelphia), weren’t even in the business a year earlier.” Each acquired agencies in 2005 (Caruso Benefits, and Paul Hertel & Company, respectively). Another Pennsylvania bank, S&T Bancorp (Indiana, PA), “went on something of an insurance spree in 2005, acquiring three agencies,” he continued. “These Pennsylvania institutions are committed to expanding sources of noninterest income, and they see insurance brokerage as a good way to do it.”

Among other highlights of the 2006 edition of Who’s Who in Bank Insurance:

- At BNCCorp (ND) the insurance segment contributed $1,942,000 in net income to the company in 2005, almost half (47 percent) of the bank holding company’s profits.
- At $6.6 billion (assets) Greater Bay Bancorp (CA), insurance accounted for almost one-third of all bank revenues.
- Over the last 15 years, BB&T Corporation (NC) has acquired 77 insurance agencies—including five in 2005 alone—more than any banking company. Insurance is the single largest fee-income contributor at the $109 billion (assets) company, far outstripping investment banking, trust, and mortgage banking.
- Trustmark Corp. (MS) had an 81 percent gain in insurance brokerage revenues and moved from an ‘Up-and-Comer’ in the 2005 edition of Who’s Who to a ‘Top 25’ institution in 2006. In late 2004, Trustmark purchased one of the largest agencies in northwest Florida.

- First Niagara Financial Group (NY) also moved from ‘Up-and-Comer’ into the ‘Top 25.’ First Niagara acquired the largest insurance agency in Rochester, New York, in July 2005.
- BancWest Corporation’s (HI) insurance brokerage ranking skyrocketed from 72nd to 36th place as revenues increased almost fourfold—largely the result of its purchase of Community First Bankshares (ND), which owned a large insurance agency.
- South Financial Group’s (SC) ranking soared from 83rd in 2004 to 65th. The bank company purchased three insurance agencies in 2005.
- Peoples Bancorp’s (OH) Who’s Who ranking advanced from 70th to 62nd. Bank CEO Mark F. Bradley is also president of Peoples Insurance Agency.

Looking ahead, bank brokerage revenues will total nearly $4.2 billion in 2006, MarshBerry’s Patrick Linnert and John Wepler report in the Foreword to the study. “If the growth trend continues, bank-owned insurance operations will account for 10 percent of total net written property and casualty (P&C) premiums by 2008.”

The study was sponsored by MarshBerry, EAI Information Systems, and Omni Builders Risk. It is distributed at no cost to members of the Bank Insurance & Securities Association. For non-members, the charge is $275.
